

KING ISLAND - DOWN SOUTH

HEAD DOWN SOUTH TO EXPERIENCE KING ISLAND'S NATURAL WONDERS

THE CALCIFIED FOREST

7000 years ago a forest on King Island's south-west coast was rapidly consumed by sand. The remains of that forest became visible when the sand receded leaving a ghostly reminder of this millennia old event. The forest is a short 15 minute walk from the parking area 30 minutes south of Currie.

FASCINATING LIMESTONE FEATURES

PENGUIN PARADE

There are between 17 and 20 species of penguin found worldwide with the smallest of them, the aptly named Little Penguin being found in great abundance at the end of the Grassy breakwater. Less than 40cm tall these penguins are best viewed at dusk as they return from a day foraging at sea. The sight of them leaping from the ocean and waddling back their nests is unforgettable...and free. Please take care when approaching the colony and do not shine bright lights towards them.

ONE OF NATURE'S MARVELS

SEAL ROCKS

King Island tends to be quite flat but the spectacular Seal Rocks Reserve features the tallest cliffs found on the island, rising to 60 metres. The 80m boardwalk to the viewing platform allows visitors a stunning view of the Southern Ocean with the boiling sea a reminder of King Island's terrible shipwreck history.

NEXT STOP SOUTH AMERICA!

SURPRISE BAY & SEALER'S WALL

On the way to Stoke's Point, King Island's southern tip, the track is narrow but easy to drive with caution. Stop off at stunning Surprise Bay for a picnic lunch and a swim before heading further along to the mysterious Sealer's Wall.

Please remember to close all gates behind you as this is a working beef farm run by one of King Island's oldest families.

FAVOURITE LOCAL SWIMMING SPOT

GRASSY & SURROUNDS

THERE'S PLENTY TO SEE AROUND THIS OLD MINING TOWN

1. King Island Tours rightly claim to take you where others can't thanks to their all terrain Oka vehicles and the expert knowledge of their guides. The Hidden Experience is one of the most popular tours and focuses on the island's south. All tours are fully catered and feature a white tablecloth Paddock to Plate experience.

2. If seeing the penguins in Grassy has piqued your interest then contact King Island Rambles and enjoy the short walk to view the incredible local platypus.

3. If you're looking for a unique souvenir of your stay then pop into Grassy's King Island Kelp Craft to view their creations made from dried kelp.

4. King Island has no shortage of beautiful beaches but if you can face the bumpy road then we recommend Red Hut as one of the best. Otherwise City of Melbourne Bay is easier to access and well worth a look.

5. Portside Links Gallery, adjacent to the working Grassy Harbour, offers an incredible artistic experience with work on display by local and visiting artists. Delicious homemade cakes & coffee are also available.

FOOD ETC.

PETIT FOURS, PASTIES & PICNICS

Clearly, an area of such desolate, natural beauty with a tiny population is unlikely to be overwhelmed with food options but, all things considered, Grassy punches well above its weight.

Before you even get to Grassy you have to pass by either Bischoffs Cafe or Café Brewer. Both of these lovely locations serve a range of breakfasts and lunches. Even if you're not hungry, stopping for a coffee & chat will definitely enhance your day.

Once in Grassy you would be foolish not to pay a visit to Portside Links Gallery & Cafe but remember that tonight you're going to be eating some of the best prepared produce on King Island.

Wild Harvest opened in 2016 to rave reviews for the food, the view and the level of service. Operating a Paddock to Plate experience they showcase the best locally sourced products with style and adventure.

Alternatively, with an abundance of beautiful locations you may prefer to shop in Currie and prepare your own delicious produce or ask Foodworks to make up a hamper of local products to enjoy al fresco.

Not every establishment is open every day so we strongly recommend that you phone ahead before setting out.
